Article 2 - Name of the Centre

2.1 Name of Centre

2.1.1 The name of the Centre shall be "The Royal Astronomical Society of Canada, Mississauga Centre."

Article 3 – Objectives

3.1 The objectives of the Centre are:

3.1.1 To stimulate interest and to promote and increase knowledge in astronomy and related sciences in Mississauga and surrounding communities,

- 3.1.2 to work in conjunction with the Society and other Centres of the Society to further the progress of astronomy in Canada,
- 3.1.3 To promote observational astronomy and related activities within the membership
- 3.1.4 To hold astronomy lectures and presentations at monthly meetings open to the public,
- 3.1.5 To work in conjunction with other organizations to further the progress of astronomy in Canada,
- 3.1.6 To acquire and maintain equipment and other property necessary for the pursuit of its objectives,
- 3.1.7 To publish newsletters and other material containing information on the progress of astronomy and the work of the Society,
- 3.1.8 To receive and administer gifts, donations and bequests from members of the Society and others,
- 3.1.9 To make contributions and render assistance to individuals, groups and institutions engaged in the study and advancement of astronomy.

Article 4 Relationship between the Centre and the Society

4.1 Association Of Centre And Society

- 5.2.1 The Centre is a constituent part of and associated with the Society.

4.2 Constitution of the Society

- 4.2.1 The operation of the Centre is governed by the Centre's Constitution and by the Constitution of the Society.
- 4.2.2 The by-laws of the Centre shall not conflict with the Constitution of the Society, and any Centre by-law that does so conflict is inoperative to the extent of the conflict.
- 4.2.3 Where a resolution or action of the Centre conflicts with a resolution or action of the Society, the resolution or action of the Society shall prevail and the resolution or action of the Centre is inoperative to the extent of the conflict.

4.3 Centre Debts

- 4.3.1 The Centre shall be responsible for its own debts, obligations and claims and shall not incur or be liable for any debt, obligation or claim incurred by the Society.

Article 5 – Membership

5.1 ELIGIBILITY

Membership in the Centre shall be open to all persons who are interested in astronomy, as provided by the Letters Patent of the Society.

5.2 CLASSES OF MEMBERS

- 5.2.1 There shall be five classes of membership in the Centre: ordinary, youth, affiliate life, and associate. Every member of the Centre shall be elected to membership under Article 5.3.
- 5.2.2 An ordinary member of the Centre is a member of the Centre who has paid the ordinary membership fee under Article 5.6.1.
- 5.2.3 A youth member of the Centre is a member of the Centre who has paid the youth membership fee under Article 5.6.1 and who is less than twenty-one years of age at the time of such payment. Eligibility for youth membership terminates at the end of the membership year in which the person becomes twenty-one years of age.
- 5.2.4 An affiliate member of the Centre is a member of the Centre who is a member in good standing of another RASC Centre and the Society, who has specifically applied for this class of membership, and who has paid the prescribed affiliate membership fee. Eligibility for affiliate membership is subject to the approval of the prospective member's home Centre.
- 5.2.5 A life member of the Centre is a member of the Centre who has been elected either directly as a life member or previously as an ordinary, youth, or senior member, and has paid the life membership fee under Article 5.6.1, or a member of the Centre upon whom the National Council has conferred life membership in recognition of specified meritorious service to the Society or to a Centre. A life member shall not pay any annual membership fee other than any applicable surcharge established under Article 5.8.
- 5.2.6 An associate member of the Centre is a person who shares a household with an ordinary, youth, affiliate or life member of the Centre who has made application for such membership and who has paid the associate membership fee referred to in Article 5.6.2.

5.3 Election Of Members

- 5.3.1 A person who has submitted an application and the fee under Article 5.6.1 may be elected as a member of a Centre by a special resolution of the Council of the Centre.
- 5.3.2 Any person whose nomination for membership is defeated shall be entitled to immediate refund of all fees submitted with his or her application.

5.4 Relationship Of Centre Members And The Society

- 5.4.1 Every ordinary, youth, and life member of the Centre is also a member of the Society. A person who for any reason ceases to be a member of the Society thereupon ceases to be a member of the Centre. An associate member of the Centre is not a member of the Society. An affiliate member is a full member of the Centre but holds membership in the Society only through their primary Centre membership.

5.5 Duration of Membership

- 5.5.1 A life member shall be a member for life, provided he or she remains attached to the Centre. Any other person shall be a member for twelve months after becoming a member, and thereafter for successive twelve-month periods as long as that person renews his or her membership in accordance with Article 5.6. A person may pay the membership fee for any multiple of twelve months, to a maximum of thirty-six months, in which case the duration of his or her membership is extended accordingly. A person may not pay the youth membership fee for any period that extends more than twelve months beyond the time when the member becomes twenty-one years of age.

- 5.5.2 Notwithstanding Article 5.6.3, a person who submits a membership fee within four months after the expiry of his or her membership shall be considered to have renewed his or her membership for a twelve-month period (or multiple thereof, if applicable) as of the previous expiry of membership, with no interruption in membership. If a person submits a membership fee later than four months after expiry of a previous membership, then such person shall be considered a new member, with a break in continuity of membership. The Centre shall keep a record of expired memberships for at least one year following expiry.

5.6 Membership Fees

- 5.6.1 The annual membership fees for ordinary and youth members, and the life membership fee shall be determined from time to time by ordinary resolution of the Society.
- 5.6.2 The annual membership fees for associate and affiliate members shall be determined from time to time by special resolution of the Centre or the Centre Council.
- 5.6.3 Renewal fees for existing members are due and payable before expiry of the person's membership, in default of which [subject to Article 5.5.2] the person ceases to be a member of the Centre.
- 5.6.4 Annual membership fees, associate membership fees if any, Centre surcharges if any, and life membership fees, for members attached to a Centre, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Centre.

5.7 Centre Surcharges And Entitlement Of Members To Centre Rights And Services

- 5.7.1 Subject to Article 5.7.2, the Centre or the Council of the Centre may by special resolution establish one or more surcharges applicable to the members of the Centre or to any class thereof, in respect of any Centre right or service.
- 5.7.2 Subject to Article 5.7.3 and 5.7.4, every voting member is entitled to exercise the following rights:
- 5.7.2.1.1 to attend and to vote at all Centre meetings;
 - 5.7.2.1.2 to attend all meetings of the Council, unless, in exceptional circumstances, the Council declares, by special resolution, a meeting or a part of a meeting to be closed to the membership;
 - 5.7.2.1.3 where permitted by applicable legislation, to stand for election as an officer or councillor of the Centre; and
 - 5.7.2.1.4 where he or she is twenty-one years of age or more, to stand for election as a National Council Representative under Article 7.3.
- 5.7.2.2 If the Centre imposes any surcharge upon its members before allowing them to exercise such rights, then this surcharge shall be designated a "basic surcharge", and this basic surcharge must be set in an amount no higher than is necessary to recover the direct costs of providing such rights, including the cost, if any, of meeting facilities for meetings of the Centre and the Council. Additional surcharges may be required for additional Centre rights and services, but entitlement to the above-specified Centre rights shall not be conditional upon payment of such additional surcharges.
- 5.7.3 The Centre may, by special resolution, require payment of the renewal fee and a basic surcharge, if any, during the renewal period specified in Article 5.6.3, before a member is entitled to the Centre rights specified in Article 5.7.2.

5.7.4 Associate members of the Centre shall be entitled to exercise such rights as are determined from time to time by ordinary resolution of the Centre or the Council.

5.8 Duration Of Entitlement To Centre Rights And Services

5.8.1 Subject to Article 5.7.3, a member who is entitled to the specified Centre rights under Article 5.7.2 for a membership year is so entitled during that membership year. If the Centre does not have a basic surcharge, a life member attached to the Centre is entitled to the specified Centre rights under Article 5.7.2 as long as he or she remains attached to the Centre. If the Centre has a basic surcharge, a life member attached to the Centre is entitled to the specified Centre rights under Article 5.7.2 upon payment of this annual basic surcharge.

5.9 Transfer Of Membership

- 5.9.1 A member of another Centre may transfer his or her membership and become attached to the Centre, and an unattached member may become a member of and attached to the Centre, upon application to and acceptance by the Executive Secretary of the Society. Such transfer or attachment is effective from the first day of the month following that in which the transfer or attachment is so accepted.

5.10 Termination of from Membership

- 5.10.1 A member's membership can be terminated as provided by Article 5.6.3 and by the Society's By-laws.
- 5.10.2 A member may terminate his or her membership in the Society by sending a notice in writing to that effect to the National Office of the Society and/or to the Secretary of the Centre, if any, to which he or she is attached. The notice shall take effect on the later of the date of receipt of the notice at the National Office and the date, if any, specified in the notice.

5.11 Disciplinary Action and Expulsion from Membership

- 5.11.1 All members of the Society are expected to conduct themselves in a manner respectful of other members and the general public and not to act in such a manner as to bring the Society into disrepute.
- 5.11.2 Any member whose actions cause disruption or prevent other members from participating fully in the activities of the Centre may be subject to disciplinary action by the Centre Council in the form of a written reprimand, a requirement for restitution or a fine or a period of suspension or probation. Any such disciplinary action must be approved by a Special Resolution of the Council in accordance with a Code of Conduct that is published annually by the Centre and available to all members.
- 5.11.3 Any member of the Centre whose continued membership in the Centre is not in the best interests of the Centre may be expelled from membership in the Centre by special resolution of the Council and of the Centre. A member whose expulsion is proposed has the right to receive notice of the meetings at which such expulsion shall be proposed and of the intention to propose such expulsion, and to make representations at the meetings at which the votes are held.
- 5.11.4 Upon expulsion from membership in the Centre, a member shall be considered an unattached member of the Society.
- 5.11.5 Immediately upon a member being expelled from membership in the Centre, the Secretary of the Centre shall notify the Secretary of the Society of the expulsion and the grounds therefore.

Article 6 - Council

6.1 DUTIES AND COMPOSITION

- 6.1.1 The property and business of the Centre shall be administered by the Council, the members of which shall, subject to Article 6.2.4, be the elected officers of the Centre referred to in Article 7.1 and councillors.

9.2 Business Meetings

- 9.2.1 The President shall call business meetings of the members of the Centre as often as the business and activities of the Centre may require. Notice of such meetings shall be given in such manner as can reasonably be expected to bring the calling of such meetings to the attention of the members of the Centre.

9.3 Meetings on Requisition

- 9.3.1 Upon requisition in writing signed by at least ten voting members of the Centre, the President shall call a meeting of the Centre to consider the business specified and at such place as is named in the requisition. If the President fails to call a meeting of the Centre to be held within sixty days of such requisition, then any voting member of the Centre who has signed such requisition may call a meeting of the Centre.
- 9.3.2 At least thirty days before the date of such meeting the Secretary shall notify every voting member of the Centre of the meeting, stating the names of the requisitioning members, the location and time of the meeting, and the business specified in the requisition. If the Secretary fails to give such notice, the notice of the meeting may be given by any voting member who has signed such requisition, at the expense of the Centre, at least thirty days before the date of the meeting.
- 9.3.3 At any such meeting of the Centre, only such business as is specified in the requisition shall be conducted.

9.4 Presiding Member

- 9.4.1 The annual meeting of the Centre shall be presided over by the President, in his or her absence by the Vice-President, and in the absence of both of them by a member of the Council elected at the meeting. The presiding member may vote at a meeting only to cast a deciding vote in the event of a tied vote.
- 9.4.2 Every other meeting of the Centre shall be presided over by the President or by his or her designate.

9.5 Quorum

- 9.5.1 No business shall be conducted at any point at the annual meeting of the Centre, and no vote shall be taken at any point at any meeting of the Centre at which a quorum, which shall be 20 voting members of the Centre, is not personally present or represented by proxy.

9.6 Conducting Of Business

- 9.6.1 Unless otherwise prescribed in the By-laws, by applicable legislation, or by the National By-laws, the Centre shall act by ordinary resolution, and Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the conduct of Centre meetings.

ARTICLE 10 - FINANCES

10.1 Annual Financial Statements

- 10.1.1 The Centre's annual financial statements shall consist of a balance sheet, a statement of revenues and expenses, and such other statements as are required in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, by the Council, by the National Council, or otherwise by law.

ARTICLE 11 - SIGNING AUTHORITY

11.1 Signing Authority

- 11.1.1 Contracts, or any instruments in writing requiring the signature of the Society, shall be signed by any two of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, and the Treasurer, and all contracts, documents and instruments in writing so signed shall be binding upon the Society without further authorization or formality. The Council shall have the power from time to time by resolution to appoint an officer or officers on behalf of the Society either to sign contracts, documents and instruments in writing generally or to sign specific contracts, documents and instruments in writing. The seal of the Society when required may be affixed to contracts, documents and instruments in writing signed as aforesaid.
- 11.2.1 Every officer who, and committee that, has responsibility for the expenditure of an amount allocated under the budget may expend such amount and thereupon bind the Society to that extent without further authorization.

12.2 Remuneration of Members

12.2.1 No member of the Society may receive any remuneration from the Society for any work performed on behalf of the Society. Each member shall be entitled to be reimbursed for all expenditures authorized by the Council and made by him or her on behalf of the Centre or in connection with the Centre's business.

Article 13 - Conformity To By-laws

13.1 Conformity To By-Laws

13.1.1 Subject to Article 13.2, no action taken contrary to the By-laws of the Centre is valid.

13.2 Failure To Receive Notice

13.2.1 The failure of any person to receive notice of any meeting required to be given under the By-laws of the Centre does not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

Article 14 – Repeal and Amendment

14.1 Amendment And Enactment Of Constitution

14.1.1 The By-laws of the Centre may be repealed or amended, supplementary Letters Patent may be enacted and other by-laws of the Centre may be enacted, by special resolution of the Centre. No such action is effective until adopted by the National Council, as prescribed by the Society's By-laws, and until approved in accordance with applicable legislation, if any.

14.2 Repeal Of Previous By-Laws

14.2.1 All previous by-laws of the Centre are repealed as of the coming into force of this By-law. Such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any by-law so repealed or affect the validity of any action done or right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred under, or the validity of any contract or agreement made pursuant to, or the validity of any charter or documents of the Centre obtained pursuant to, any such by-law prior to its repeal. All officers or persons acting under any by-law so repealed shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions of this By-law and all resolutions of the Centre or of the Council or a committee of the Council with continuing effect passed under any repealed by-law shall continue good and valid except to the extent inconsistent with this By-law and until amended or repealed.
